

Clean copy of claim 1

R1.26504
20.1/

B1

1. A shower apparatus, comprising an enclosure or door and a shower tray, wherein said enclosure and said shower tray are mutually disconnected, a free space being defined between a lower edge of said enclosure or door and an upper edge of said shower tray, said enclosure or door being arranged within a perimeter of said shower tray, suspended from said shower tray, said enclosure or door having means for adjustable connection to the walls that form a cubicle for accommodating said apparatus.